

Your Trainer: Sarah T. P. Andiel

- Master Debate Trainer
- CEO at DebateConsult
- BDVT Certified Consultant and Trainer
- Head Coach at VDCH Train-the-Trainer, a debate training masterclass of the German Debate Association
- Head Coach at IDEA Train-the-Trainer, a debate training masterclass of the International Debate Education Association
- Studied rhetorics, educational science, economics and philosophy

"When I was 17, I decided to become a rhetoric trainer. So I said and did: In Tübingen I studied rhetoric, educational science with a focus on adult education, business administration, philosophy and a little speech training and became self-employed as a rhetoric trainer at the same time. Just as it should be for an ambitious rhetorician, I also went to the debating society "Streitkultur e.V.", was president of the "Tübinger Debatte" (Tübingen Debate) and went to Berlin as a judge for the 2006 European Debating Championship. Although I discovered some other exciting things in my life, I have remained devoted to debating to this very day. Now I pass on my knowledge and experience to people who speak with enthusiasm and who want to argue with determination".