

GSLs Workshop

“Networking at International Conferences”

with Dr. Michael Finkelstein

18th October 2018, 2pm-6pm & 19th October 2018, 9am – 5pm,
Room 01.001/002, GSLs, Beatrice-Edgell-Weg 21, Hubland North Campus

Aims of this workshop

- To develop a clear-cut and confident small-talk style at academic occasions, including, but not limited to, a profound understanding of small talk topics, possible communication styles, politeness in an intercultural context as well as issues and topics to be avoided.
- To overcome the fear of talking (in English), particularly about issues you feel insecure talking about.

Methods

This workshop offers an interactive training of a wide range of small talk topics, forms of politeness, addressing and treating people of various backgrounds, including elements of intercultural competence. The trainer uses different methods: memory techniques, vocabulary exercises, role plays, discussions, and different media to support long-term memory of learned phrases and vocabulary.
